

in all communities, transcending economic, geographic, and racial lines. In fact, domestic violence is the greatest cause of injury to women in the United States. Today, a woman is battered every 13 seconds, compared to every 15 seconds a few years ago. Yet, the nature and seriousness of domestic violence as a crime is often ignored.

To combat domestic violence, education is vital to helping battered women recognize the problem, and to changing society's attitude and perceptions. Only by raising the level of awareness and understanding about domestic violence can we overcome the shameful stigma and psychological barriers associated with this epidemic.

As Chair of the Violence Against Women Task Force, I will cosponsor a reception with California State Senator Hilda Solis on November 3, 1995, in Los Angeles, to highlight organizations and individuals that work tirelessly against domestic violence. In particular, this year's reception will honor organizations in Los Angeles County that provide sanctuary to victims of domestic violence. Shelters play a critical role in helping women and children break the cycle of violence, and make the transition from victim to survivor. The honorees are: The Angel Step Inn; Chicana Service Action Center/East Los Angeles Center/Free Spirit; Didl Hirsh-Via Avanta; Dominquez Family Shelter; El Monte Youth; Every Woman's Shelter/Center for the Pacific Asian Family; Glendale YWCA Shelter; Good Shepherd Shelter; Haven Hills; Haven House; House of Ruth; Jenesse Center; Oshon Village; Rainbow Services, Ltd./Sojourn; Su Casa Family Crisis & Support; Tamar House; Valley Oasis; Wings [Women in need Growing Strong]; Women's & Children's Crisis Shelter; Womenshelter; and 1736 Family Crisis Center.

Mr. Speaker, in honor of Domestic Violence Awareness Month, I urge my colleagues to join me and Senator Solis in recognizing and congratulating these organizations that provide life-saving services to victims of domestic violence and help educate our communities about this terrible crime.

DR. FRANK P. LLOYD RESIGNS

SPEECH OF

HON. ANDREW JACOBS, JR.

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 31, 1995

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. Speaker, the following editorial published in the Indianapolis News this past weekend, does not overstate the accomplishments and the goodness of Dr. Frank P. Lloyd. It would be impossible to say too much good about this magnificent man:

[From the Indianapolis News, Oct. 28, 1995]

A ONE-IN-A-MILLION LEADER

Too often, the work of a soft-spoken leader goes without due recognition. Such is the case with Dr. Frank P. Lloyd, who resigned last week from the White River State Park Development Commission.

Lloyd has served tirelessly on that body since 1979, when it began its work to create an urban park for the people of Indianapolis. His work for the commission, however, is just one of many of his efforts to better this city.

Upon hearing of Lloyd's resignation, U.S. Rep. Andy Jacobs, Jr. called him a "civil saint" and one of "God's nobleman."

A summary of a few of his accomplishments explains that description.

Lloyd, who will turn 76 this month, received his medical degree from Howard University in 1946 and built a career as an obstetrician. Along the way, he also became involved in many community projects.

In 1968, Lloyd got the idea to give Indianapolis its first radio station with a goal to serve the black community. He and 11 Democrats put their money together and bought a license and began to broadcast on WTLC-FM.

Lloyd also was the chairman of Midwest National Bank, where he put high priority on opening up lending opportunities for minorities.

In a 1993 interview with News reporter Marion Garmel, he said: "What I believe as a black male is that if you're going to try to do something in a community at all, you need three things: access to media, access to money and access to the political world."

He has been successful at all three.

Lloyd has served on the boards of many organizations, including Indiana Bell Telephone, Ameritech, the Christian Theological Seminary, Community Leaders Allied for Superior Schools and the Indiana Advisory Board of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

He was president of the Metropolitan Planning Commission in the 1970s and was chairman of the prestigious American Planning Association, which develops urban policy.

Lloyd also has recognized women deserving a leadership positions. During his stint at Methodist Hospital, from which he retired as president and chief executive officer, Lloyd promoted two women to senior management positions, something that had not been done before.

He also has mustered support for health programs for women and children. When Sen. Richard Lugar was in Indianapolis a few weeks ago, he praised Lloyd during a luncheon speech, crediting him for his work.

"I remember Dr. Frank Lloyd, when I was mayor, said that the best index of the civilization of this city is the infant mortality rate. It tells you very rapidly the sense of concern that people have for each other in a community sense," said Sen. Lugar.

Lloyd clearly has a strong sense of concern for the people of Indianapolis. His accomplishments—there have been for to many to list here—bear that out.

Although he would not seek out recognition for his good deeds, we choose to acknowledge them here, as well as offer a heartfelt thank-you on behalf of the entire community.

HONORING EL RIO BAKERY

HON. ED PASTOR

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 1, 1995

Mr. PASTOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the winners of the U.S. Small Business Administration's 1995 Minority Retail Firm of the Year for the Western region of the United States, the El Rio Bakery of Tucson, AZ.

First opening their business over 20 years ago, Sabino and Artemisa Gomez started a small Mexican bakery, working together 7 days a week in an effort to achieve the American Dream. Sabino Gomez had come to the United States in his early twenties, when a local baker recruited him from Mexico in exchange for a good wage and the opportunity for legal immigration to the United States. After meeting his wife, Artemisa, in 1968, the two opened El Rio Bakery in 1971 selling traditional baked goods. Several years later, they expanded into the wholesale market, selling their products to the local supermarkets and restaurants. Today, they employ 22 people, still work side by side for up to 15 hours a day, and have realized their dreams. I congratulate the Gomez family on their successes, and wish them the best of luck in their future endeavors.

TRIBUTE TO CHARLES J. SLEZAK, BERWYN'S "MR. REPUBLICAN"

HON. WILLIAM O. LIPINSKI

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 1, 1995

Mr. LIPINSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with great sadness at the recent passing of one of my district's leading citizens—Charles J. Slezak. Charlie was known as "Mr. Republican," serving as GOP Committeeman for Berwyn Township, but his legacy goes far above and beyond his involvement in party politics. Charlie spent most of his adult life working to improve the community he was born in, Berwyn, IL, and its neighbor, Cicero.

After serving in the South Pacific with the Navy in World War II, Charlie, a Morton East High School graduate, returned home to his job with Continental Can. More importantly, he married the former Mildred Hurt on June 8, 1946, forming a partnership of love that lasted nearly half a century.

In 1959, Charlie and Millie purchased a hardware store in Cicero. Not only did they expand the business threefold in the 20 years they owned it, but he used it as a springboard for charitable and civic work. The list of organizations Charlie lent his leadership and organizational abilities to is long indeed. He served as parade chairman of the South Cicero Boys Baseball Association, chairman of the Illinois Junior Miss Pageant, chairman of the Cicero
